

AMII Press Release

17th June 2013

AMII announces 2013 annual conference programme

The Association of Medical Insurance Intermediaries (AMII) is pleased to announce the conference programme for 2013, which will be hosted by TV medical journalist Sue Saville.

The annual event will address a number of issues including growing the PMI market, the direction of the NHS, and helping healthcare advisers to grow their business.

Speakers on the day include:

- Professor Nick Bosanquet, Imperial College
- Paul Moulton, Intermediary Director, AXA PPP
- Nick Reynolds, Head of PMI, Aviva
- Raman Sankaran, Sales & Marketing Director, Simplyhealth
- Dave Priestley, Sales Director, PruHealth
- Dr Damien Marmion, MD, Bupa Health Funding
- Fergus Craig, Commercial Director, AXA PPP

AMII vice-chair Brian Walters said: 'With an excellent programme of top-level presentations and debates, this year's Summit is a must-attend event for PMI professionals.'

The 2013 Private Healthcare Summit takes place at the Royal College of Physicians in London on July 9th. The day will close with a Chairman's dinner at the Melia White House Hotel.

About AMII

The Association of Medical Insurance Intermediaries (AMII) was established in 1998 as a trade association for independent medical insurance advisers based in the UK.

AMII is the only specialist intermediary trade body within the Private Medical Insurance industry. All AMII members offer specialist advice on private medical insurance.

The Association promotes and maintains high standards of professional and ethical conduct amongst members, and aims to increase awareness of the role of specialist medical insurance advisers. AMII members adhere to a Code of Ethics and commit to on-going professional development.

Buying medical insurance from a member of AMII will give you access to specialist independent advice on a range of private medical insurance schemes from a number of different insurers.

All AMII members are authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority (FSA) to sell general insurance products.
